"NOT 'RANGE," SAYS HYATT

FORECASTER DECLARES CHILLY
WEATHER MAKES US FEEL IT.

He Expects Nothing More Than Sun-show, If It Rains at All—
It Is General in the West.

A hot wave swept over St. Louis Monday. The official thermometer in the dome
of the federal building jumped from 65
degrees at 7 o'clock
to 87 at 1 p. m., at which hour the prospects seemed likely
for a further rise.
The atmosphere was uncomfortably sultry
during the day and
torrid winds accentu-
ated the above summer weather.

The heat due to a low barometer which has settled over the lower Missouri valley and extend to the Iowa line to southern Colorado.

"A warm up is in progress through the Middle West," said Dr. Hyatt to the Post-Dispatch, "if there doesn't seem to be any immediate chance of abatement."

"However, conditions are decidedly unsettled here and are apt to have rain.
It is not for thunderstorms, nothing more than showers, if it gets wet at all."

"While we practically in the grasp of summer do not regard this blast of heat as unusual or in any way presaging any serious atmospheric disturbance.
It is not a redoubtable, but after the chilly weather we have been having its suddenness strikes as exceptional."

"The official thermometer is usually about 2 degrees less than those on the ground, where most people are, so that the silver dot is really lying in the nineties."

"The winds caused by the fact that the barometer is moving, being heated at this time to the northeast."

They Must Pay Dollars and Cents
Each for Failure to Appear on Special Jury.

Four juror business men occupying positions of responsibility, were fined $10 and costs Monday morning for non-appearance before Judge Zachert's court, where they had been summoned to serve on a special jury.

The non-appearing jurors who were fined were: Oliver Langan of the Langan-Taylor Store Co., William Kennedy of the Snyder-Snyder Stationery Co., David Morris, cashier of the Eagle Tacket Co., and Edward Morehead, a clerk in the Bank of Commerce.

Attachments were issued for the four men.

SMOKESTK MUST COME DOWN

Judge Fishburns Removal of Mer-mod-Jack Building Chimney Wh Ninety Days.

The removal of the smokestack on the Mermod and Jewel Co.'s building at Broadway Locust street was ordered by Judge Fishburns in the Circuit Court Monday morning after hearing the evidence offered the St. Louis Safe Deposit & Savi Co.

The complainant in its petition that the smokestack which is on the Kennet estate, was a source of annoyance and loss to the surrounding property. It was also stated that stack stood partly on the property of the complainant company.
Judge Fishburns, which took the form of a motion, ordered that the stack be taken down within 90 days. If this not done, it was stated, the sheriff was to be ordered to remove it at the cost of the estate.

KRAZT TL SET FOR MAY 5

Judge Harvated That He Had No Knows of His Client's hereabouts.

Charles K. under indictment for robbery, failed to appear in Judge Ryan's division of the Circuit Court Monday morning for his case was called.
Attorney counsel for Krazt, stated that he did not know the whereabouts of him.
Circuit Attorney Folk said the state was making a diligent search for the fugitive, and that if he is to be returned at all he would be within two weeks.
He asked court to lay the case over until May 5 after consulting his docket.
Judge Ryan the case would again be called on May 5 after the special jury was excused until date.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 21.—Intense heat prevailed in Nebraska Sunday, the temperature ranging from 90 to 100 degrees. A warm west wind blew most of the day, changing to south in the evening, and at times attaining a velocity of 50 miles an hour. Vegetation in eastern Nebraska is suffering for rain and damage to winter wheat is reported.

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—Sunday was the hottest April day in 15 years. The thermometer at 5 p. m. reached 95 degrees, the highest previous record being 91. The intense heat was more oppressive owing to the excessive cold weather experienced up to Saturday night, overcoats being required for comfort during the past week.

While no prostrations occurred, the torrid temperature was responsible for several attacks of illness, two occurring in one church during the day.

A continuation of the hot weather will prove dangerous to wheat and oats.
The temperature this morning at 8 o'clock was a trifle cooler than yesterday at the same time, but the heat is still oppressive and quite unseasonable.

The mercury stood at 72, two degrees below Sunday. At Valentine it registered 41, against 48 yesterday morning. A high wind prevails in Omaha and throughout most of the state. The indications are that the day will be as hot as Sunday.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 21.—The mercury in the thermometer began to climb about 8 o'clock Sunday and at noon registered as high as 92, a change of more than 40 degrees in six hours. A high south wind set in and soon the air was dark with particles of dust and sand. Several buildings of light structure were blown down. The sand storm did not subside until night. A rain is badly needed throughout the state.
The hot wave continues today and at 1
a. m. the thermometer stood at 78 degrees. Two hours later it had crawled up to 83, with prospects of reaching a record-breaking height before night. Intermittent storms of dust accompanied the heat.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 21.—The highest temperature Sunday was 91 degrees. A furious hot wind, such as might be looked for in August, blew.

The hot south winds prevailed again today and this morning no reports of rain had been received at the local weather bureau. Increased damage to vegetation of all kinds will doubtless result. The temperature at Florence and Abilene, in central Kansas, and Hiawatha, in the northeastern corner of the state, ranged from 80 to 90 degrees above in the shade yesterday and the prospects today are for a repeat of the same.

Secret Conference Is on at the St. Louis Club.

AIR KING LATE SLEEPER

WAS TO HAVE VISITED BUSINESS HOUSE, BUT PROGRAM WAS CHANGED.

Santos-Dumont met the full World's Fair committee on aeronautics, Charles W.
Knapp, chairman, at the St. Louis Club at noon Monday.

With the committee were Prof. G. Rotch of Boston, meteorologist of the Blue Hill observatory of Harvard University; Prof.
George S. Wilkins of the University of Alabama; C. D. Mosher of New York, maker of high-power lightweight engines for yachts.

The conference is private and is expected to last until 2 o'clock.

The aeronaut did not appear in the Southern Hotel breakfast room until 11:30 o'clock.
During the morning cards were sent to his room, but he pleaded fatigue from the exertions of Sunday.

His friend and companion, M. Emmanuel Aime, was early astir, however, and met Mr. Wilkins, Prof. Rotch and Wilkinson. Mr. Mosher and several World's Fair department chiefs in the general lobby.

Mr. Smith had arranged a short inspection of the business section of St. Louis before the meeting.

Accordingly, M. Aime and Prof.
Wilkinson were sent in a carriage to the Simmons Hardware Co.'s headquarters and general plant and through Cupples Station, while Mr. Smith drove with Prof. Rotch and Mr. Mosher to and through the Fair site.

Prof. Wilkinson and M. Aime returned to the hotel at 11 o'clock and joined Mr. Santos in his room. After a light breakfast this party drove unattended to the St. Louis Club.

Mr. Smith stated at the Southern Monday morning that it will depend on the length of the conference and its effect on Mr. Santos as to whether there will be any drives or social functions during the afternoon.

Indications, he said, pointed to a discussion on all phases of the proposed aerial contest.

SANTOS TO SHOW SHEEP
HERE NEXT SEPTEMBER.
Santos-Dumont wants to exhibit his latest airship, the Santos-Dumont VII, at the St. Louis Exposition next September. He expressed a desire Monday morning when he visited the Exposition building and looked through the Coliseum.

"Magnificent," exclaimed the Brazilian from Paris. "Why this would be the very place. I could show off my airship in here to the best advantage, explaining all its points to the public."

I think it would be a good idea for me to give an exhibition prior to the great aerial contest. We must keep the people interested in aeronautics. Mr. Santos expressed a desire so soon as he had breakfasted to see the Coliseum, stated that he would like to see the Coliseum and the height of its dome. So soon as he saw the interior he grew enthusiastic. He was impressed by the architecture and the airship during the exposition next fall, but expressed a desire to see the Coliseum before the exposition. He referred the enthusiastic foreigner to President Frank G. Alden of the Exposition company, saying that no doubt Mr. Alden would be pleased to have the exhibition. Arrangements will be made before the aerial contest leaves the city.

75 PERSONS PERISHED BY FIRE AND WATER ON STEAMER PITTSBURG

Ohio River Boat Burned to the Water in a Few Minutes Sunday Morning.

150 PERSONS ON BOARD

MANY ASLEEP WHEN THE ALARM WAS FIRST GIVEN.

INCIDENTS OF THE DISASTER

The Flames Spread So Fast That Nearly All Means of Escape Were Cut Off, Even After Boat Was Run on Shore.

CAIRO, Ill., April 21.—The side-wheel steamer City of Pittsburgh, en route from Cincinnati to Memphis, was burned to the water's edge Sunday morning at Turner's Landing, near Olmstead, Ill., 11 miles from Mound City, Ill., and 24 miles from this city. There were 150 persons—passengers and crew on the boat, and it is believed that fully half of this number perished.

PANIC CAUSED MANY DEATHS.
The fire started in the lower part of the steamer in the freight, or possibly in the engine room. Within ten minutes of the discovery of the fire, at 4 a. m., survivors say, the upper decks were swept by flames and passengers were penned in on all sides, even the life preservers being cut off by the flames.

The panic that followed caused a greater loss of life than would have ensued if the officers could have calmed the terror-stricken people. Some rushed through the flames and perished; others fainted and sank down to be cremated. Many in their night robes, some of them asphyxiated, jumped overboard and were drowned.

Those that got into the boats saw others drowning as their overcrowded craft pulled to shore. The barely clad survivors on the shore not only witnessed horrifying scenes around the charred hull, but also suffered from early morning till relief came in the afternoon.

The captain says there were 60 passengers, not including a dozen babies. There were many women as well as men in the cabin and the indications are that the greater percentage of losses was among the women and children.

As the register, with all other records, was burned and the survivors scattered in every direction, there is great difficulty in getting a list of the survivors. It is conceded that many bodies never will be recovered, so that there will never be a complete list of the victims. It is thought that many charred bodies will be found in the hull of the burned steamer when the mass of embers cease burning so that the search for the remains can be made.

The early reports stated that 60 lives were lost, and that many were badly burned and otherwise injured, but the list of casualties is not yet definitely determined.
Two boats and every available craft from this city went to the scene for relief. Efforts were made to catch the New South of the same line at Paducah and have her steam back for relief, but the New South had passed Paducah upward-bound before the telegram was received.

FIRST ALARM OF FIRE

Most of the passengers were still in bed when Second Clerk Oliver Phillips gave the alarm. The engineers at once started all of the pumping engines, while the crew brought all the hoses into play. Amid the streams of water on all sides, the flames from the lower deck and dense clouds of smoke the passengers rushed from their staterooms and a frightful panic ensued.

The appeals of the officers and crew could not appease the terror-stricken passengers that interfered with those throwing water on the flames, as well as those working with the lifeboats. Few could advise life-preservers or do anything else for themselves. The smoke was stifling. Great clouds floated through the sleeping passengers, choking the passengers, adding to the terror. Children cried pitifully and begged that they be saved. They knew as well as their elders that death confronted them and clung to their mothers as though they alone could save them.

The lifeboats were manned and every effort was made to save the passengers from the floating furnace of flames.
Boats were sent from the shore to work in the rescue. Boats laden to their limit with passengers in scant attire as they were able to gather were landed at the river banks.
As fast as one boat could be emptied it returned to the ill-fated steamer, heroic rescuers not waiting to catch a breath of rest.

INCIDENTS OF THE PERIL

H. T. Gardner of Leansport, Ind., relates his experience as follows:
"About 5 o'clock I was awakened by the electric bells and the screams of passengers.
My stateroom was half way back. I put on a life preserver and my clothes and went down to the lower deck and saw one man caught under the wheel and saw one man drown who was carried under the boat by the swift current. I was badly bruised and jumped overboard. I was a good swimmer and managed to get ashore."

One of the surviving members of the crew gave this account:
"The fire was discovered at 4:30 a. m. in the forward hold. In a few minutes the whole bow was a wreck. The front stairways were burned, cut off by any avenue of escape. We alarmed the sleeping passengers, bursting open the doors to awaken them. They ran out without putting on life-preservers and crowded aft. The officers held them back while the sea went on."

LIST OF THE LOST.

sons are known to have perished on the burned City of Pittsburgh. The full list is not yet obtainable:

These members of the crew, names unknown, also missing:
First pantryman.
Three colored firemen.
Six cabin boys.
Two chambermaids.
Six deck hands.
Two cooks.

OFFICERS OF THE BOAT.

CAIRO, Ill., April 21.—The Pittsburgh's officers consisted of:
JOHN PHILLIPS, commander.
DANA SCOTT, purser.
OLIVER PHILLIPS, Pittsburg, clerk.
BEN BRIDGES, Louisville, third clerk.
ARCH SCHRIER, Moscow, Ohio, first mate.
WILLIAM CLOSSEY, Sassafras, second mate.
WILLIAM BOLLINGER, Cincinnati, steward.
FRED RENTZ, Newport, Ky., barkeeper.
HARVEY BROWN, Cincinnati, steerman.

loaded with women and children.

"The scene was awful. About 30 or 40 were taken off in the boats and then those in the water were rescued. The water was very cold and the passengers were in their night clothing. Those who were not burned up in the boat drowned in the cold water, all except those who were able to swim.
I was one of those."

"When we reached shore we were unable to stand and had to be helped out of the water. It seemed as though we were crushed by fright, for we were screaming with fright even after we were safe ashore."

Capt. Phillips says:
"The fire caught in the hold. The night watchman claims to have been in the hold five or ten minutes before the fire was discovered. The pilot headed the steamer directly into the bank and the sharp bow stuck in the mud, the boat lying quartering with the bank."

A WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE.

Mrs. Mulkey, wife of Judge Mulkey of Metropolis, Ill., boarded the City of Pittsburg, shortly before the disaster, and was saved. She said:
"I got on the boat at Metropolis to take passage to Cairo. All of the passengers were asleep when I got aboard and I at once went to my stateroom and lay down with my clothes on. It must have been an hour or more before I noticed a big, bright light shining into my room. I immediately got up and opened the door and saw that the front cabin was on fire. At that moment the electric light went out. I put a life preserver on and managed to escape my way by the flickering light of the flames to a door opposite."

"It was the barber shop. Then I groped further down to a near door, which opened out onto the guards. But few passengers were aroused at this time, and I, with children, climbed out over the guards and down the railing, hand over hand, to the life-boat, which was right below me. I hung suspended by my arms for a while, and was caught by a man who was seated in the boat and filled it to overflowing, but, as
the boat and filled it to overflowing, but, as it providentially, the flames reached the ropes that held the lifeboat, and it dropped into the river before others could push their way into the boat. We would all have been drowned if others had pushed into the boat. The lifeboat commenced to drift back toward the big burning steamer and we thought that we were to die, after all. We had no oars to steer the boat, and the men used their hands for oars. We managed to get ashore, first were lighted and the poor women and children, many of them in their night dresses, shivering with the cold and from wet clothing, huddled about the fires. Many of them had lost those nearest and dearest to them, and their cries and moans were heart-rending."

Some were burned, but the flames were brutal and cut by coming in contact with the wreckage. People clung to shutters and anything they could find to float on to shore, and a few succeeded. A physician who, with his wife, was among the rescuers, managed to quiet the suffering of some by administering morphine, of which he had a small quantity."

HAMLET'S CASTLE HIS FIRST HOME

Carl Moller Was Born Amid Scenes of Romance.

CLASSMATE OF GREEK KING

CIVIL WAR BROUGHT HIM TO AMERICA.

Late Grand Secretary of the Royal Arcanum Was Son of Former Commander of Elsinore Fortress and Insular Governor.

CARL MOLLER.

Carl Moller, grand secretary of the Royal Arcanum, whose funeral was held Sunday afternoon was brought up amid scenes of romance and educated in the company of royalty.

Kronborg castle, near Elsinore, Denmark, immortalized by Shakespeare as the scene of the tragedy of Hamlet, was Mr. Moller's birthplace. His father, a major in the Danish army, was commander of the grim fortress, and the home of his boyhood was among the ivied walls which are crowded wherever the drama of the melancholy Dane is placed on the stage.

One of the rooms of the castle was once the prison of Queen Matilda, sister of George III, the English revolutionary tyrant, and wife of Christian VII of Denmark.

At Copenhagen University, where he was a student until his twenty-first year, he was a classmate of Prince William of Schleswig-Holstein, son of the King of Denmark and brother of Queen Alexandra of England, who in 1863 became King of Greece under the name of George I, and who was the present ruler of the Hellenic kingdom. From Elsinore Carl Moller was transferred to the governorship of the island of St. Thomas, in the Danish West Indies, and the young man, then ready to enter on a military career, accompanied him. Before he had entered on active military service, his father died.

Came to Fight
in America.

His mother had died in Denmark, and a sister in Santa Cruz. A career in the Danish army offered nothing better than a routine official existence and the desire to have a part in the American civil war, then at its beginning, caused the young man to abandon his former plans and sail to New York.

His military training enabled him to become lieutenant of a regiment organized in New York city, and he served in this rank through the greater part of the war. After the war Mr. Moller settled in Leavenworth, Kan., and married Miss Clara Kuhn. He came to St. Louis in 1880 and entered the employ of the Mount City Distilling Company. A year ago he resigned the secretaryship of this company to become grand secretary of the Royal Arcanum, of which he had for many years been a prominent officer. He had been a member of the grand council.

Until a few days before his death, which resulted from an attack of pneumonia, Mr. Moller was planning a visit to West Point military academy to see his son, Jay Moller, a student in the third class of the national military institution, whom he had not seen for a year and a half. Young Moller is now at home with his mother, and will return to West Point in a few days.

At the funeral Sunday afternoon, which was conducted by Rev. William Short, from the home at 416 Washington boulevard, the active pallbearers, fellow-members of Benton council, were Messrs. A. S. Robinson, Jere Halderman, Lewis J. Moller, E. F. Wedcott, H. J. Braun, E. H. Bickley, F. H. Bacon and Amos Felling. The honorary pallbearers, from Logan post, G. A. R., were Col. David Murphy, Col. George D. Reynolds, Capt. W. E. Ware, Capt. Frank Raymond, Capt. L. G. Harris, Capt. W. R. Hodges, J. J. Boland and H. H. Denison.

BITUMINOUS ASPHALT O. K.

Street Commissioner Varrallmann Has Returned From Inspection Tour of the Eastern Cities.

Street Commissioner Charles Varrallmann returned Monday from a visit to Eastern cities, including Boston and the adjoining university city of Cambridge, where he inspected the bituminous asphalt in use on a number of streets.

Mr. Varrallmann announced that the samples of this paving which he saw in Boston, Cambridge and Pawtucket, down a year, made a most favorable impression on him, and that he will recommend the use of the same material on Lindell and West Pine boulevards, which are soon to be improved.

An Interesting Pamphlet.

Redmond, Kerr & Co. of 41 Wall street, New York, are distributing a pamphlet describing the letters of credit issued by their banking house. It is very handsomely gotten up and contains illustrations of the principal banking houses abroad where letters of credit are cashed. Information is also given in this booklet as to the general working order of a Letter of Credit, as to the value of foreign coins, cable and telegraph rates, and differences in time and similar information. A Letter of Credit is not merely an assurance that a traveler is good for the amount in his Letter of Credit, but also that he is a proper person from a social point of view to receive the introduction of a banking house. This is one of the old-fashioned features of banking which is not merely based on a dollar and cents basis. A traveler having a Letter of Credit may journey to any part of the civilized world without burdening himself with any cash and still feel sure that his financial wants within the limits of the sum named in his Letter of Credit will be supplied. Copies of pamphlets may be had upon request.

THE BOYCOTTERS DISCHARGED

Judge Sidener Decided That Distributing Circulars Is Not Disturbing Restaurant Keeper's Peace.

In the City Hall Police Court Monday morning Judge Sidener decided that it does not constitute a disturbance of the peace to distribute notices of a boycott in front of a place of business.

Four members of the Waiters' Union, Miss Bertie Green, John Green, Charles A. Shalleross and Joseph Moore, were arrested April 17 at the instance of Charles Westman, a restaurant proprietor, for distributing boycott cards, the proprietor and the union having a dispute.

Judge Sidener discharged all the defendants.

SELLS FALSE DOG LICENSES.

Mayor on Track of Man Who Deals in Municipal Counterfeits.

Mayor Wells has placed two detectives on the track of a man who is said to be selling counterfeit dog licenses. About a year ago several persons were indicted on charges of dealing in spurious licenses, and it was thought that the traffic had been stamped out.

A few days ago, according to information reaching the mayor's office, a man appeared at the Missouri foundry, Broadway and Iron streets, with a pocket full of dog-license tags, which he offered for sale. One man at the foundry bought a license from him for 25 cents.

HYPNOTIST GOT THE DIAMONDS

Mrs. Jennie Leber Now Applies for a Warrant.

Mrs. Jennie Leber appeared at the warrant office Monday morning and asked for a warrant against an Olive street fortune teller, whom she charges with having obtained a diamond ring and a diamond pin from her through the aid of hypnotism.

Mrs. Leber is young and pretty, and since she and her husband separated, she has been employed in a restaurant. She says that she fell in the toils of the fortune teller before she obtained her position. The woman foretold a bright future and induced Mrs. Leber to part, temporarily, she was told, with her jewelry.

Mrs. Leber made repeated visits to the fortune teller and sought in vain for the return of the jewelry.

Sunday Mrs. Leber again went to the fortune teller's home, but the woman was not at home. Mr. Johnson said he would issue the warrant if the police could locate the fortune teller.

Mrs. Leber was accompanied by another young woman, who said that she was employed at Ferguson-McKinney's, but she would not give her name. This young woman said she had been treated in the same manner as Mrs. Leber.

THE PROPER FOOD FOR HANDWORKERS—SATISFYING TOO.

You Need Nerve Force and Restoration of Physical Energy.

Paine's Celery Compound

BUILDS UP STRENGTH AND HEALTH.

It is a Boon to Men and Women Workers.

Paine's Celery Compound gives nerve force and true bodily strength to men and women workers, enabling them to swing through the toils and duties of each day with true pleasure.

Paine's Celery Compound quickly builds up a perfect physical well-being for the weak, run down, and languid of all ages, and brings to every sufferer a health and happiness as nothing else can do. One best and ablest physician recognizes Paine's Celery Compound as a true nerve food and system builder, and regularly prescribes it in some of the most serious cases of nervous prostration and failing strength. In purchasing, be wary of substitutes and the many imitations and worthless celery preparations; get PAIN'S, the kind that "makes sick people well."

Gen. Wm. W. Henry, American consul, city of Quebec, says: "It gives me great pleasure to endorse Paine's Celery Compound, both on account of the results obtained from personal use of the remedy and knowledge of the remarkable cures it has performed. I believe it has no equal in curing diseases of the nervous system and building up those who are weak and out of health. It has cured several friends of mine of rheumatism in its worst form."

Goebel of Kentucky, is in the Sevier County jail, 40 miles east of here, held by officers, awaiting a reply to messages sent to the sheriff at Lexington, notifying him of Gillespie's arrest and confession.

A woman, who refuses to give her name, and who was arrested with Gillespie, after resistance, is also held for developments as to her identity. Gillespie says that she is his wife.

The arrest was made at Pigeon Forge, Sevier County, Thursday afternoon by Constable J. W. Wynn.

Gillespie admits having been a fugitive from justice since Goebel's death. He denies having fired the shots.

ROCKEFELLER, JR. ON WEALTH'S USE

Riches No Bar to Salvation, He Says.

THAT IS ALL IN THE MAN DOES HE POSSESS GOLD OR GOLD POSSESS HIM?

Young Millionaire Tells His Bible Class This Is the Test of Rich Man's Fitness for Heaven's Joys.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 21.—"Riches do not bar one from salvation. Salvation depends upon whether the man possesses the gold or the gold possesses the man."

Thus, epigrammatically, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., son of the richest man in the world, and who himself will some day inherit a fortune of $300,000,000, expressed himself yesterday before the young men's Bible class in the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church.

His announcement at the beginning of the service that he would speak on Christ's use of the word "riches" and the eye of the needle awakened unusual interest.

"When Jesus said that it was impossible for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven as it was for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle, in my opinion he did not mean that his words were to be construed in the literal, broad sense, but in the narrow, strict sense."

Mr. Rockefeller was interpreting the story of that incident in the savior's life when a rich young man asked him what he should do to inherit eternal life. Christ told him to keep the commandments, to which he replied that he had obeyed them all his life. Then the savior instructed him to dispose of his riches by giving them to the poor, as it would be as impossible for a rich man to receive salvation as a camel to pass through the eye of a needle.

Mr. Rockefeller argued that the words of Jesus in that case were exceptional and meant to fit the particular instance.

"Nicomachus was a wealthy man, but his gold did not possess him, and he was beloved by the savior," said the young millionaire. "His riches did not bar him from the kingdom of heaven. If the riches possessed by any man absorb that man's life and keep him from Christ, then he should part with his riches."

The Lord has said, "If thy hand offend thee, cut it off." Wealth brings its responsibilities to its possessor and if, instead of doing good with it, it makes him hard and blunts his sense of benevolence, then he shall part with it, for the man who has the opportunity for doing good and refuses to accept it is an offense in the sight of God.

If ambition and pleasure are the ruling passions of one's life, they should be parted with, for the man who is ruled by the rich man places his possessions first, or if the ambitious man places his ambitions first, he cannot enter the kingdom of heaven.

"But the possession of wealth will not bar one from heaven. It is the improper use of it, and it is not wealth alone of our possessions which we should use righteously and not unrighteously. The improper use of any ability of earthly possession is equally an offense in the sight of God."

Mr. Rockefeller then told of two young men attending the church who out of their salaries of $5 a week give $1.50 a month to missions.

"Their one dollar and a quarter, being freed from the hands of the rich," he said.

At the conclusion of the lesson it was announced that Mr. Rockefeller's class will hold a ping-pong tournament Wednesday in the clubhouse of the Y. M. C. A. A teacher recently fitted up the house and presented it to the class.

If you have $100 Cash and can make $10 per month payment on a lot that will double and treble in value in a very short time, owing to prospective completion of a boulevard in front of property owned by Mercantile Trust Co., Real Estate Department, for particulars of their "King's Highway Terrace" subdivision.

POTENT FACTORS AT OXFORD.

English Writer Thinks Americans Will Exert Strong Influence.

LONDON, April 21.—The speaker devoted a long article to the probable effects of the Rhodes scholarships on Oxford University. It thinks it safe to ignore the influence of the Germans and colonials, saying the former will naturally gravitate towards a Teutonic clique, but it will be too small to affect materially the settled life and traditions of Oxford.

The colonials, of whom there are many already at Oxford, show no tendency to impress themselves on the life of the college, as distinct from the students of the United Kingdom. It is in the American invasion that the speaker anticipates the greatest changes. The writer of the article continues:

"There are now two distinct classes of Americans coming either to Oxford or Cambridge because he or his parents thought he could get a better education at those universities than at home. The result, however, will be the same, for whatever their fathers may be, the Americans who are sons of English parents are Americans as any body, and are not likely to forget their nationality when they find themselves at Oxford."

Arguing on these premises, the writer concludes that a hundred young American students, "glorifying in their nationality," will become a potent factor in the life of the university, with the result that the American personality on the staid old university, with the natural result that an organized American society, college yells, class battles, and the young American spirit generally will slowly but surely be changing the existing differences between Oxford and Cambridge.

CONSUMPTION WILL BE THEME

American Congress Will Meet to Discuss the Disease.

TWO CAPITALS ARE IN RUINS

Earthquake Wipes Out Whole Cities in Guatemala.

THOUSANDS MAY BE DEAD QUESALTENANGO AND AMATITLAN WERE THE PLACES.

One Had 25,000 Inhabitants and the Other 10,000 and No Estimate of the Killed Has Yet Been Made.

GUATEMALA CITY, April 21.—Three earthquakes on Friday night reduced to ruins Quesaltenango, the second city of importance in Guatemala and having 25,000 inhabitants, and completely destroyed the town of Amatitlan.

Both of these towns were capitals of the departments of the same name each bears. It is reported that 500 persons were killed in Quesaltenango, but the rumor lacks confirmation. The exact loss of life cannot now be ascertained.

News of the destruction, which extended 100 miles along the western part of the republic, is coming in slowly, because all of the telegraph wires down.

It is known that Amatitlan exists no more as a town, the seismic disturbance having been so great. The inhabitants—that is, the 10,000 residences who escaped death in the calamity—are camping in the open air for safety, not daring to return to the ruined confines of the town. Some of the inhabitants are building temporary mud huts.

More news has been received about the condition of affairs at Amatitlan than at Quesaltenango, as the former is only 15 miles south of this city, while the latter is more than 100 miles to the northwest. Couriers say that earthquake shocks are still being felt at short intervals in the neighborhood of Quesaltenango.

There have been serious seismic disturbances along the Cordillera, affecting towns and villages between Amatitlan and Quesaltenango. No reliable information regarding the loss of life or the extent of the property destruction in these intermediate places has reached here.

Slight disturbances were felt at Guatemala City, but no great damage resulted.

HIGH DUTY FOR FREE BEER.

Hohenzollern Crew Found Their American Treat Was Costly.

BERLIN, April 21.—The great "beer treats" of the New York brewers to the crew of the imperial yacht Hohenzollern had unpleasant consequences for several of the deck officers.

They saved seven kegs of beer, intending to present them to their friends at home, but the custom house officers at Kiel seized the kegs at the freight depot and demanded that the officers pay 20 marks ($27.50) in duties and penalties. The Customs officers sold the beer at auction.

HARPER TO PITCH THE OPENING GAME

Ralph Orthwein Will Dedicate Athletic Park Wednesday With Aforetime Ceremony.

Jack Harper, who last year helped pitch the Robison team into a good position in the National League pennant race, will be in the box in the game which will mark the American League's entry into St. Louis. Chance and Harper's excellent condition determined Manager McAleer in his choice and not a desire to flaunt his success in securing the player in question from the rival organization.

Harper has not been working for a week, and is in fine shape, according to Manager McAleer.

Old Time Ceremony at the Opening.

The American League's opening will be accompanied by all the ceremony and pomp that distinguished opening day under the regime of "Der Boss President" and Chas. Comiskey.

There will be the usual downtown parade of carriages, and several enthusiastic followers of the fortunes of the new team will accompany the procession in tallies.

At the park, Ralph Orthwein will make the dedicating speech. The players will parade around the park to the strains of the band and the umpire, Bob Carruthers, famous as a member of the Browns in the old days, will put Comiskey team, will call play ball at 3:30 p. m.

All this is providing the weather is favorable on Wednesday and that it does not interfere in the meantime with the work on the grounds.

Management Says All Will Be Ready.

The management announces positively that everything will be ready for the opening game, but the field Monday morning was well littered with material, the roller was at work on the field and stands.

Tomorrow the final work-out before the opening game will occur.

The team now numbers as members: McClellan, Suggs, and Donohue, catchers; Sudhoff, Sweeney, and Reddy, and Donohue, pitchers; Anderson, first base; Padden, second base; and Jones, third base; McCormick, third base; Burkett, left field; Heidrick, center field; Jones, right field, and Kelly, utility.

On their present trip the Cardinals will play four games in St. Louis, at Cincinnati, four in Pittsburgh, and then back to Chicago for three more, returning May 1 to try to win the pennant.

The American League will play eight games at home, four straight with Cleveland and Detroit.

It was reported that Hartman was thinking of jumping the team, but M. Stan-ley, who has been in the city for some time, said that there was no foundation for the rumor.

Chicago has had an easy time of it in its opening series, winning three out of four games, and is now at St. Louis, in the elongated Yerkess to pitch in Monday's game, probably.

An authority on grandstands states that the new stadium, the American League Park in Philadelphia, being of smaller area.

With one exception Athletic Park would be the best country, the American League Park in Philadelphia, being of smaller area.

Wallace says the Pittsburghs would have to play ball to win from the St. Louis Cardinals, who are now at St. Louis, in the elongated Yerkess to pitch in Monday's game, probably.

The first thing Dick Padden looked for when he came to St. Louis was the first time was: "Where is that flag pole? I want to see how the pennant is going to look up there."

Heidrick's leg pulled through all right and will be doing business in a few days near the club house.

Ralph Orthwein's California bred greyhound Tiburon, by Pretender-Procurator, won the all-aged stake at Pastime Park Sunday afternoon. The day was a record for the breed, and some very close and exciting contests were witnessed.

Speakers who wanted to be on the program were disappointed, as there were no bookmakers. The Wild West show was a success, and the audience was very large.

AMERICAN TEAM ARRIVES AND IS READY FOR WORK

Frank De Haas Robison Stays Over to Make Legal Fight for Heidrick, Harper and Wallace.

THE PLAYERS ALL SHOW UP WELL

"Ready for business" was the enthusiastic announcement at the local American League headquarters Monday morning.

The team, including 16 players and Manager McAleer, arrived in the city at 8 a. m. and went to the Southern Hotel. Donohue, of the pitching staff, came in yesterday, and the aggregation of talent that expects to land a pennant for St. Louis during the season is all here for Wednesday's opening game with Cleveland.

Manager McAleer allows no grass to grow under the soles of his players, and at 10 a. m. the entire team was at Athletic Park in the first practice the team has had in St. Louis.

Padden Is Enthusiastic Over His Team's Work.

The team is in excellent shape, according to the testimony of the players and Capt. Padden. He is enthusiastic over the recent work of the team and is especially complimentary of the condition of his pitching staff.

Wallace, Heidrick and Harper are with the team and will play in the opening game against Cleveland. They are skeptical of any move being made against them by the St. Louis National League management, and Heidrick says that they cannot be interfered with, even should a move be made.

"Our National League contract all have ten-day clauses in them," said Heidrick. "The Philadelphia courts have already decided that this form of contract is unjust to the player and therefore not valid. They may get a temporary injunction, but it cannot be made permanent."

(Second Floor.)

Porcelain Refrigerators. Built entirely (outside and inside) of pure white glazed porcelain tiles, perfectly fitted together, these refrigerators represent the acme of daintiness, cleanliness and cold luxury. The inside is practically a china box, every part is light and easily accessible for cleaning. They are constructed on common sense ideas, and use but a small quantity of ice. Higher-priced, of course, than a wood and zinc lined refrigerator, but surprisingly low-priced for so much excellence and beauty. Come and see them.

All Tile, made in various styles and sizes to suit all requirements. Prices $115, $125, $144 and $160.

We have them in various styles and sizes, with or without water heaters.

Anniversary Greeting.

Just one year ago today we welcomed the people of St. Louis to this new store.

In five years we had outgrown our old quarters and felt cramped; we needed more room. Here we found space to show our goods, to arrange them systematically and artistically, and an opportunity to realize in a measure our ideals of what this business might and should be.

The past year has been one of growth unprecedented in our history, in some respects far beyond our expectations. We feel as never before that the fundamental principle of this store, the best goods at the lowest prices consistent with undoubted quality, has won and will continue to win success.

This conviction is a stimulus and inspiration to greater and better things, more earnest endeavor to merit in the future the good will and confidence of the people of St. Louis, which is the true measure of our success today.

We take this opportunity of expressing to our friends and patrons our sincere thanks for the generous support which has enabled us to build up this business, the largest of its kind in America.
